

1 article which tells the General Assembly how to keep 2 their ledger.

3 This Constitution has portions in it which 4 border on the legislative, however, as Delegate Macdonald
5 pointed out so very well, the legislature has failed to 6 act in this field adequately. It has had a hundred years
7 in which to direct these matters. It has failed to do 8 so.

9 This is a true progressive type piece of 10 Constitutional law. It deserves to be in here and it 11 should stay.

12 THE CHAIRMAN: Any other delegate desire to 13 speak in favor of the amendment?

14 Delegate Moser?

15 DELEGATE MOSER: I rise to speak in favor of 16 Delegate Scanlan's amendment. I think that the colloquy
17 on the floor has illustrated that this is purely a legis-
18 lative matter. That it is something which should be 19 carefully considered by the legislature; they considered
20 a number of bills on the subject the last time.
